PREFACE

Bangladesh Election Commission conducted the 8th Parliament General Election in October 2001. It is customary to publish a report on the election to meet the information need and curiosity of different quarters both at home and abroad.

It is significant to note that for the first time in the history of Bangladesh an elected government completed its tenure and peacefully handed over power to a Caretaker Government to guide a free and fair election to be held within a specified time frame of 90 days.

In this election people's expectations from both home and abroad were high. A total of 225 foreign observers from 32 countries and 218,000 local observers from 69 local institutions/agencies observed the election. It was indeed a gigantic task to create a conducive environment for holding a free and fair election, which could satisfy the people and the international community.

The Care Taker Government undertook all necessary measures to create a conducive environment. This enabled the Bangladesh Election Commission to organize the nation-wide election activities in a planned and peaceful manner. All possible steps were taken by the Commission to ensure a free and fair election in a peaceful environment.

By the grace of the Almighty Allah, the General Election 2001 was conducted successfully and to the best satisfaction of all concerned. The successful conduct of the 2001 General Election has been appreciated and highly acclaimed by the people of the country and also by the national and international observers, international community, donors and media both at home and abroad.

The Bangladesh Election Commission is now publishing this report on the conduct of the Parliament Election 2001 for record and general use as a public document. The report gives the basic information, geographical indication of 300 constituencies for election of the members of Parliament, summary of the results in tabular forms, number of party-wise candidates and symbols allocated to them, division-wise list of seats won by different political parties and independent candidates with their respective symbol, information about voters' turn out and participants, list of elected candidates, information on forfeiture of security deposits, etc.

This report is also available on CD at Election Commission Secretariat (Phone: 880-2-9132022) and can be downloaded from the website (<http://www.bd-ec.org>).

The Election Commission extends its thanks and gratitude to all those who extended their helping hands to the Election Commission to enable it to conduct the 8th Parliament General Election in a free, fair, transparent, efficient and peaceful manner.
